Women Heaviest Sufferers in Stricken Districts of Ireland

Now it is the women of Ireland who stand amid the ruins of their homes. Unlike the Belgians they have no peaceful area to which they can flee for refuge with their children. All Ireland, North and South, is a battlefield. They have had no part in the fighting. And yet there are two hundred thousand of them whose homes are heaps of ruins, whose husbands have lost their employment owing to the disturbance.
In Dublin, a comparatively peaceful area, five thousand children are now living on a cup of cocoa and a piece of bread a day, given them by private relief agencies. The money even for this meagre meal is giving out. And the children, already seriously undernourished, are in imminent danger of starvation.

TO LITTLE GIRL NAMED MARY.
What a precious name you carry,
Little maid with eyes of blue!
Just to think dear Mother Mary
Shares her holy name with you!

Sweetest name in all the ages,
Loved of God and loved of man;
Honored by all saints and sages
Ever since the world began;

Praised by countless voices ringing
In the bright celestial choir!
Blessed by little children singing
Hymns of thanks and fond desire;

Gracious with a grace supernatural,
Lovely as a morn in May,
With a grace that is eternal—
This the name you bear today.

'Tis a priceless jewel you carry,
Little girl with eyes of blue;
Yet I know dear Mother Mary
Gladly shares her name with you.
—H. M. Kennedy.

WORKS IN CHINA.

In a recent report on the need of up to date medical and surgical work in the Far East, Dr. Robert F. Francis, physician and surgeon, late of New Orleans and now a Catholic medical missionary in China, emphasizes in particular the need of X-ray treatment. In the course of his report Dr. Francis says:

"The need of hospital X-ray work is urgent. Our medical branch, comprising a well equipped dispensary, and a surgical treatment room, is running at top speed. Already it has given us an insight into our future possibilities. We have been visited by all sorts of unfortunate ailments from some cause or other. Skin diseases form the highest average, diseases of the eyes and ears coming next, winding up with the various ailments that come

The same is true of the youngsters in Belfast.

To feed both, to keep these refugees North and South alive until the sources of employment are rebuilt in Ireland, the American Committee for Relief in Ireland has been formed. This Committee which is absolutely non-sectarian and non-political, is now conducting a campaign for $10,240,000 under the direction of Captain John F. Lucey, who was Mr. Hoover's first aide in Belgian Relief. Its appeal to the people of America is based on a purely humanitarian basis. Those to whom the sight of suffering children is an imperative call should contribute quickly to John F. Lucey, treasurer, at 1 West 34th Street, New York, the headquarters of the American Committee for Relief in Ireland within the scope of the general practitioner." Dr. Francis states that within a few weeks after he had begun work among the Chinese, an average of over seventy-five patients a day were coming for treatment and the number was steadily increasing. He is working with the Chinese missionaries of Omaha, Neb., in the city of Han Yang, China. Dr. Francis joined the Chinese mission last December and left for the Far East toward the end of that month.

MASON TO BE PRIEST.

Dr. B. L. Kirby, formerly a well-known Mason of Springfield, Ill., who was converted to the Catholic faith some years ago, has entered St. Viator's College, Bourbonnais, Ill., to study for the priesthood. Dr. Kirby's wife died several months ago. For the last several years Dr. Kirby has been a practicing dentist in Springfield. After his conversion he became an active social worker and established one of the first boys' clubs organized in the United States. This was the Ozanam Club, which is credited with having been a very wholesome Catholic influence among the youth of Springfield. Dr. Kirby had attained to high degrees in Masonry before becoming a Catholic.

PEOPLE ARE UNITED.

Sinn Fein candidates had a clean sweep in all the Southern, Eastern and Western counties of Ireland in the May election. They carried all of Monaghan, Donegal and Cavan in Ulster and divided honors with the Unionists in Armagh, Tyrone, Fermanagh and Derry. Unionists in Donegal, Monaghan and Cavan refrained from nominating candidates for the South of Ireland Parliament, with which their lot is cast in the partition Parliament.
